OPENING PERFORMANON. The Vicianne Dagmar Variety Company opened for a short season on Saturday at the Theatro Royal. There was slarge au-

The performance opened with admirable punctuality with an overture by Mr L. Broughton. A play in two scenes by Henry Arthur Jones, entitled 'The Elder the Kirk,' was then performed, the character of Abraham Boothroyd (The Elder) being ably filled by Mr W. Bond : Tom Dempster (a barrister), by Mr S. Harding; Mrs Bolingbroke (the old Juliet) by Miss Freeman, and Rosa Jervois (the new Juliet), by Miss Dagmar. The play is a bright production, with many amusing situations. - Mr Bond in the character of the bigoted old Scotch elder, was a pronounced success. He exhibited an acquaintance with the dialect of a particular district not far from the Clyde which could only have been attained by long and assiduous study. The other parts were ably The new Turbinia of 230ft. length and 330

Mr Bond afterwards appeared as a comic singer, and gave two exceedingly amusing ditties with a rapidity that was amazing. Miss Dagmar's singing and dancing in the La Belle Parisienne ' was loudly applaud- instead of the original Turbinia's three ed. The ballad At Eventile from Falka, was rendered with fine breadth and richness of tone by Miss Freeman, and she had to respond to an enthusiastic encore. A most amusing duet was given by Mr Bond and Miss Dagmar, entitled, All the way from 'Gay Parce,' Miss Dagmar concluding the first part with a complete somersault.

The second part of the programme was opened by Mr Sydney Harding in a very clever ventriloquial entertainment. Miss Freeman gave a sweet and spirited rendering of the patriotic song, 'Soldiers of the Queen,' which aroused much enthusiasm. Miss Dagmar appeared in a double face speciality dance. N'rW. Bond gaves very amusing song and also a comic sketch, and joined with Miss Freeman in a musical medley. The most interesting feature of the entertainment, however, was the serpentine dances by Miss Dagmar, most approprintely termed 'Dreams,' 'Night' and Creations. Miss Dagmar created some graceful and charming pictures by her Curron, the British and American flags, | that it possesses exceptional qualities. SEVI-FINAL TIE. HONOKONG FORTBALL CLUB V. H.M.S. * VICTORIOUS.

The 38th Coy, B. D. R. A, through the absence of H.M.S. Powerful's team, pass the Semi-final stage of the Competition without a contest, and on Saturday last the above teams met on the Club's ground at Happy Valley, to decide which should have I send you a brief account of my trip to the honour of competing with them in the Nogros, hoping to send you later a more final tie. Both of Saturday's contestants left Minite on March 1, with Colonel competition, in the early stages the James F. Smith, Resident designate of the Victorious being strongly favoured, but, Californian Regiment, in command of Club have shown in their late games We had time to walk round and view that immediately prior to the game,

The game was started at 4.35, Anton arriving 5 minutes late. There was a large attendance of spectators, marines and blue lackets being greatly in evidence. The Club won the toss and began with the sum and wind at their backs. The teams faced each other as under :---

Club. F. H. Kew, Goal: Anton and Pinckney, Backs; Mayson, C. T. Kow. No doubt it was a sad mistake. A someand Howard, Haires; Lowe, Noble, Hancock and Danby, Forwards, Victorious -- Bowles, Goal; Kane and mate. Holves; Lismore, McNee, Butland, Miller and Lewis, Porwards,

·From the kick-off the Ciub went away with a rush but were immediately repulsed and the sailors attacked. Anton checked. and pleead his forwards in possession. The game was very fast and exciting, and there was a fair amount of forcible play. Buth sats of men were in good condition. ested wit is expelien bowers dulo est the training and exhibited far more than than the milete. Danby and Hananck put in good work. The latter gave a beautiful there page to Noble, which, however, was mullad. A few minutes later Danby get away from a fine pass by Hancock, and slinging the ball across the goal mouth it was rushed into the net by Lowe.

OLUB 1- VICTORIOUS' Q. Both sides put forth every offort, and Colonel Smith will probably make a the ball travelled from end to end in quick raucosalon. The civilians were by far the more dangerous, their forwards giving Creighton and Kane a very warm time. The sailors shewed good combination on their left wing, and Butland, their centre, put in excellent play, but they did not make for the goal like their opponents. We have seen a private letter, dated Once their outside right put in a levely shot, which struck the upright and they hapt up a strong attack for some time, bu their inside right spotted their efforts by brilliant runs down the wing for the Club, but though both sides attacked nothing

> Clue 1- Victorious' 0. On the restart Victorious were quickly on the attack and should have been through nost both times. They had not the sun in their eyes this half and had consequently more of the game. Spurred on by the country many more must die, because, efforts but could not manage to heat the

Then the Club attacked but with no effect and for some little time the sailors had the best of matters. They tried hard to equalize but were work near goal. Butland and his inside left got clean past the backs but were slow to shoot, and Howard crossed over from his wing, overtook them and effected a fine clearance. Afterwards the Club resumed pressure and Hancook had a fine opening but dallied and his shot was averted. Creighton and Kane showed fine de fense for Victorious, but the latter frequently placed his side in danger by dribbling. Noble had hard lines with a couple of fine shots. The sailors played up gamely, full of hope until Danby got a soft goal with a long shot from the wing-he put the ball from a good distance right into the goalkeeper's hands, but Bowles was too cool and carelessly allowed it to slip into the net—then all hope for them was gone. The whistle sounded shortly afterwards, leaving the game in the Club's favour by—2

There is not the slightest doubt that the best team won. Their superiority lay in their speed, dash, and confidence, and though the sailors gave them a hard game they always looked winners. Of the Victorious' team, Bowles in goal only made one mistake- hen he gave away the second goal; Creighton played an excellent game at back, as also did Kane but he would be better forward as he hangs on to the ball too long for his defensive position; no fault done. would be found with the left and centre halves, but the right was the weak man of the team and no use against Danby and Hancock; the forwards did not centre being the best; the left wing giving him the most assistance; the outside righ was too weak for Howard. Kew in goal for the Club had little to do: Anton was excellent at back, but rather vigorous; Pinckney was also good; Howard was in splendid form at half and Kew and Mayson also did their share, but were not so conspicuous, being opposed to better men; Danby, Hancock and Lowe were the pick of the forwards. the left wing playing exceptionally well, passes: Noble also played a good game, but Looker was weak; he works very hard but with little effect as he as nearly always out of his place.

Before closing we should like respectfully to make some remarks about the not only the best referce in Hongkong. which is not saying much, but that he would be considered an excellent man in He was on watch for the 'bobby.' that position anywhere; still we do not think

BOUTH FORMOSA NOTES. (From Our Own Correspondent.)

Tainantu, Merch 14. I am glad to report that lately South Formosa has been much questir. reason for this peace is that a couple of months or so ago a large military, punitive expedition was sent to operate from here anuthwards. Of course, as usual a comparatively small number of real banditti were killed. They who suffered most were respectable peasants who in after days would have made good subjects. Whilst the expedition was operating in the South detailed account. The transport St Paul have been much funcied throughout the I have it on excellent authority that over 30 villages were burned. Puople who were in these villages at the time gratefully acknowledged to me that on many occasions, if individuals could at ones produce proof that they were not banditti, they and their homes were spared. Wee to them if they failed to satisfy the officer in charge. Women and children were invariably spared.

The treatment which, however, was meted out to one village called 'Kun-Chui-Chag (i.e. Bolling-water-village), about 20 miles south from here, has filled the whole of the south with horror and hatred of their rulers. In the present state of affairs to enter into details would serve no good end. what similar mistake was made to another village, and one high civil official was so saddened because of it that he went personally and tried to make an explanation to the widows and orphans,

However we have now got peace, even though to a certain extent it be like that o the ancient Romans who made a desert and called it peace. In the comparative peace we are now enjoying, there are many graw. juge as of distant thunder, indicating the brewlag of another stores. As I write ? can hear shooting going on at a village called Thuichuble, about 2 is from here. Japanesso and bandittl ayo at it igale. It is only one of the many 'growing, ' referred to above,

The one cause which seems to be bring. ing this storm to a head is the intolerable taxes which are said to be imposed on the people. The worst of it is that these taxet are too much in the hands of Chinese underlings who seize the opportunity of numbhing their onemies and rewarding their friends-for a consideration. Hence there is a wast amount of injustice administered about which the authorities know nothing. One great grievance of the Taiwanfoo merchant is the difficulty of getting snything through the Customs. At the present time large numbers of the people have got the dreaded plague, and disease has far advanced, he flees outside the city gates. Few of these over come The authorities no doubt have adopted wise and beneficent measures for checked; communication with the great the alleviation of suffering and the extermination of the fell disease. But the people have no confidence in them: and rather than fall into their hands, the patients, when possible, fice to the country, habitants of these Islands. Dear Sir,-As the representative of the leading American journal and the first European journalist to visit the island of Neg os. I have been honoured with a reques to contribute to La Libertal un arti in the austicious occasion of the landirepresentative of the Great Republic, the friend President Lacson, I accede with When the Commissioners from Negros, the City of Manila, it was felt by all, from | de-camp to Lord Tennyson the highest representative of the United States down to the humblest soldier in the army, that an important spech had reached in the history of the Philippine Islands. President Lacson, and confreres Senora Just Ruiz do Luzu-And es Ascona and Eusebio Ruiz de Luzuriaga, were accepted as the Loralda of peace. We were glad to learn hat the intelligent inhabitants of the beauful and fruitful Island of Negros, recognising that the best interests of a country can only be promoted under peaceful conditio a and a righteous government, had refund to apposint thomselves with the Hadriagd revolutionary nicrement that t present disturbs the Islands of Lucon and l'agas and prevents the neonie of those Ision a from partificating in the industries and appropriate that animal formal base a country great and prosperous. We therefore welcomed President Lisenon and his confreres because the objects of their mission poincided with the desires of the American people-its re-establishment of peace and the expansion of trade. By His Expellency Major General Elaval S. Oile, Military Governer and Commander-in-Chie tof the Unit. ed States Forces in the Philippine Islands, your Commissioners were treated with great respect and kindness. They were his honoured guests during their visit to Manila. They were present at an official banquet given in their honour in the Palaco at Malacanan.
